

Property Donation Application (For any property in Cabell County)

Please use the following application to notify the Land Bank of your interest in donating any property that you currently own in Cabell County.

The Land Bank will NOT accept your property as a donation unless certain conditions are met. The property must be free of liens, including a mortgage, utility lien, or judgment. Second, all City fees must be current with a $0 (zero) balance and the property must be contributing to slum and blight.

If the Land Bank accepts your donation offer, you will be contacted to begin the donation procedure. This form is a statement of interest only and does not commit the Land Bank to accept your property as a donation or for value.

Application will not be processed if not completed in its entirety
